Says Rockefeller Clouded the Issue

To the Editor:

Nelson Rockefeller's statements on "Meet the Press" confirmed our suspicions that it would be a poor trade to exchange him for the incumbent of the White House. We don't get the truth from Kennedy and we won't get it from Rockefeller.

SINCE Rockefeller made it a main issue on this national TV show, we can assume he is familiar with the resolution to repeal the federal income tax (the form is identical when introduced into each state legislature).

New Yorkers told us their legislators refused to vote for this resolution because Rockefeller (off the record, of course) had handed down orders.

Yet, Rockefeller stated that if income and corporate taxes were repealed, the government could not function with this $80-billion-dollar revenue. The resolution does not mention corporate taxes.

The approximate federal revenue from income taxes, estate and gift taxes is 40 billion dollars

HE ALSO failed to mention that part of the resolution demands the sale of 700 federal corporations, 19,000 businesses in the Defense Department alone.

These businesses lose approximately 40 billion dollars per year, equivalent to the revenue from income, estate and gift taxes. Rockefeller is aware of this but chose to cloud the issue by including corporate taxes.

It might be pertinent to point out that the League of Women Voters misrepresent facts in their opposing testimony in the Ohio Legislature during hearings on this Liberty Amendment.

THE WITNESS stated this resolution would abolish the Central Intelligence Agency, which is not true.

This agency builds roads in foreign countries and we hope to abolish the road-building program conducted by CIA. Truth doesn't seem very important these days.
